Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri J. S. Virk learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. The case diary is available with the learned A.G.A. The applicant is the father-in-law of the deceased and the allegations made in the FIR against the applicant are vague and general in nature. There is no specific averment against the present applicant that soon before the death the applicant had made dowry demand and in that connection the deceased was subjected to cruelty. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Magistrate concerned.
